ABSTRACT

Written for adults who wish to read to children and children able to read on their own, this book presents an edited version of William Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet." The book includes selections of the original text of the play, prose passages explaining what occurs between selections of the play, numerous full-page illustrations, and explanations of difficult words. At the end of the book are 20 open-ended questions for those who seek guidance in discussing the play. (RS)
